Ways of Thinking: Social and Behavioral Sciences

This course is part of the Saint Louis University Core, an integrated intellectual experience completed by all baccalaureate students, regardless of major, program, college, school or campus. The Core offers all SLU students the same unified approach to Jesuit education guided by SLU's institutional mission and identity and our nine undergraduate Core Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs).

Ways of Thinking: Social and Behavioral Sciences is one of 19 Core Components. The University Core SLO(s) that this component is designed to intentionally advance are listed below:

University Core Student Learning Outcomes

The Core SLO(s) that this component is intentionally designed to advance are:

SLO 2: Integrate knowledge from multiple disciplines to address complex questions

SLO 3: Assess evidence and draw reasoned conclusions

Additionally, the Core Component-level Student Learning Outcomes are listed below:

Component-level Student Learning Outcomes

Students who complete this course will be able to:

- Understand a range of social or behavioral theories and principles
- Use these theories and principles to acquire knowledge about individual, cultural, political, economic, or social events/processes
- Describe competing paradigms of knowledge (from the dominant discipline or field)
- Draw reasoned conclusions through the use of evidence and theories
- Apply social and behavioral knowledge to better understand contemporary issues and challenges

I. Course Description:

This course is designed to provide students with an introduction to politics and government in the U.S. The course will focus primarily on political institutions (the rules and constraints placed upon political actors operating in the three branches of government) and mass behavior (how citizens behave and interpret the political world).

This course fulfills the social science core requirement.

II. Ways of Thinking: Social and Behavioral Sciences requirement of the Saint Louis University Core

This course is part of the Saint Louis University Core, an integrated intellectual experience completed by all baccalaureate students, regardless of major, program, college, school or campus. The Core offers all SLU students the same unified approach to Jesuit education guided by SLU's institutional mission and identity and our nine undergraduate Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs).

III. Format and Assignments:

Because the course covers substantial material in a concentrated time period, each module will be broken into segments that involve different kinds of learning activities: lectures, in-class and on-line discussions, etc. We will often refer to current events in American politics. Students are encouraged to follow American current events by reading the news online or in a print newspaper. I especially encourage students to read reputable newspapers such as the New York Times, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, or the Wall Street Journal. We will occasionally use articles from different news venues in class. Students should be current with reading assignments to participate regularly in class discussions.

IV. Canvas Assignments

Quizzes. These will be objective questions based on key terms used in the textbook. There are 5 quizzes in the semester, each worth 10 points 50 points total.

Midterm Exam. This is a comprehensive essay based on the first part of the course. You will complete it on Canvas. It is worth 75 points total.

In-Class Discussions. During class sessions, groups of students will review questions from the textbook and discuss them to enhance their comprehension of the course material. There will be 5 of these, each worth 15 points. 75 points.

Bill Writing (Group) Project (In class and online) This is a group project involving joining a (fictional) committee in the U.S. House of Representatives. The committee will pursue a topic and prepare a bill to put before the House. There are various parts to the project, each worth a variety of points. Altogether, the project is worth 100 points.

Final Exam. This is a comprehensive essay at the end of the semester. You will complete it on Canvas. It is worth 100 points total.

Attendance. Attending class on a regular basis is highly important. Each missed class (without the instructor's permission) will remove 5 points from the total. I will allow 3 unexcused absences before I take points off. 25 points

Extra Credit Paper (3-5 pages). A position paper requiring your opinion examining on a key contemporary issue facing the states. +10 points.

VI. Grading:

Class Attendance.....	10%*
In Class Discussions.....	15%
Online Quizzes.....	10%

X. Course Objectives and Learning Outcomes

See the Modules on Canvas for the learning objectives for each week/Module. In general, the course is designed to achieve the following broad course objectives and CORE Student Learning Outcomes.

This course is designed to help students broaden their knowledge, skills, and values so that they will be able to:

- Identify the institutions, structures, practices, processes of the U.S. government and politics including the three branches of government, the U.S. Constitution, role of public opinion and media, public participation, and political campaigns and elections.
- Understand the factual and historical background relating to the development of government and politics in the United States.
- Understand the structures of the United States government, the three branches, and its history as it pertains to institutional powers and constraints.
- Understand the processes and structure of the United States elections and political system and its history.
- Analyze the role of public participation and the media in the political process and American government and how they shape public policy in the U.S.

In addition, students taking this course will develop the following CORE components:

CORE Student Learning Outcomes:

- SLO 2: Integrate knowledge from multiple disciplines to address complex questions regarding governmental powers and constraints and the role of the public in American democracy.
 - Understand a range of social or behavioral theories and principles.
 - Use these theories and principles to acquire knowledge about individual, cultural, political, economic, or social events/processes.
 - Describe competing paradigms of knowledge (from the dominant discipline or field).
 - Apply social and behavioral knowledge to better understand contemporary issues and challenges.
- SLO 3: Assess evidence and draw reasoned conclusions.
- Draw reasoned conclusions through the use of evidence and theories.
 - Use conceptual tools and methodologies to analyze and understand their social world in the context of the American politics and government.
 - Think, speak, and write critically about human behavior and community in the context of American governmental powers and constraints.

- Discuss and defend ideas orally, as part of in-class and online discussion.
- Engage in meaningful and productive dialogue with others.

xi. Honor Code

Students are expected to be honest in their academic work. The University reserves the right to penalize any student whose academic conduct at any time is, in its judgment, detrimental to the University. Such conduct shall include cases of plagiarism, collusion, cheating, giving or receiving or offering or soliciting information in examinations, or the use of previously prepared material in examinations or quizzes. Violations should be reported to me and will be investigated and adjudicated according to the Policy on Academic Honesty of the College of Arts and Sciences. If the charges are found to be true, the student may be liable for academic or disciplinary probation, suspension, or expulsion from the University. Please refer to the university policy at <http://www.slu.edu/x12657.xml>.

XII. Expectations and Procedures

Technology

Put everything on mute. You do not need to use your laptop for this course. Please take notes the old fashioned way. This will dissuade the trend of college students to browse the web, check email, and frequent social networking sites during lecture. I will upload to Canvas all lecture PowerPoints.

Communication

I will post grades, send class emails, etc. through the SLU Banner and Canvas systems. Be sure that you can access the email address listed. I will only send email out to your SLU e-mail accounts listed on the course roster in Banner. I will not keep track of any other email addresses you may use.

Academic Integrity and Honesty

Academic integrity is honest, truthful and responsible conduct in all academic endeavors. The mission of Saint Louis University is "the pursuit of truth for the greater glory of God and for the service of humanity." Accordingly, all acts of falsehood demean and compromise the corporate endeavors of teaching, research, health care, and community service via which SLU embodies its mission. The University strives to prepare students for lives of personal and professional integrity, and therefore regards all breaches of academic integrity as matters of serious concern.

The governing University-level Academic Integrity Policy was adopted in Spring 2015, and can be accessed on the Provost's Office website at:

https://www.slu.edu/provost/policies/academic-and-course/policy_academicintegrity_6-26-2015.pdf.

Additionally, each SLU College, School, and Center has adopted its own academic integrity policies, available on their respective websites. All SLU students are expected to know and abide by these policies, which detail definitions of violations, processes for reporting violations, sanctions, and appeals. Please direct questions about any facet of academic integrity to your faculty, the chair of the department of your academic program, or the Dean/Director of the College, School or Center in which your program is housed.

Title IX

Saint Louis University and its faculty are committed to supporting our students and seeking an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you have encountered any form of sexual harassment, including sexual assault, stalking, domestic or dating violence, we encourage you to report this to the University. If you speak with a faculty member about an incident that involves a Title IX matter, that faculty member must notify SLU's Title IX Coordinator and share the basic facts of your experience. This is true even if you ask the faculty member not to disclose the incident. The Title IX Coordinator will then be available to assist you in understanding all of your options and in connecting you with all possible resources on and off campus.

Anna Kratky is the Title IX Coordinator at Saint Louis University (DuBourg Hall, room 36; anna.kratky@slu.edu; 314-977-3886). If you wish to speak with a confidential source, you may contact the counselors at the University Counseling Center at 314-977-TALK or make an anonymous report through SLU's Integrity Hotline by calling 1-877-525-5669 or online at <http://www.lighthouse-services.com/slu>. To view SLU's policies, and for resources, please visit the following web addresses:

<https://www.slu.edu/about/safety/sexual-assault-resources/index.php> and

<https://www.slu.edu/general-counsel>.

IMPORTANT UPDATE: SLU's Title IX Policy (formerly called the Sexual Misconduct Policy) has been significantly revised to adhere to a new federal law governing Title IX that was released on May 6, 2020. Please take a moment to review the new policy and information at the following web address: <https://www.slu.edu/about/safety/sexualassault-resources/index.php>. Please contact the Anna Kratky, the Title IX Coordinator, with any questions or concerns.

Student Success Center

In recognition that people learn in a variety of ways and that learning is influenced by multiple factors (e.g., prior experience, study skills, learning disability), resources to support student success are available on campus. The Student Success Center assists students with academic-related services and is located in the Busch Student Center (Suite, 331). Students can visit <https://www.slu.edu/life-at-slu/student-success-center/> to learn more about tutoring services, university writing services, disability services, and academic coaching.

Disability Services Academic Accommodations

Students with a documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations must contact Disability Services to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Once successfully registered, the student also must notify the course instructor that they wish to access accommodations in the course.

Please contact Disability Services, located within the Student Success Center, at Disability_services@slu.edu or 314.977.3484 to schedule an appointment.

Confidentiality will be observed in all inquiries. Once approved, information about the student's eligibility for academic accommodations will be shared with course instructors via email from Disability Services and viewed within Banner via the instructor's course roster.

Note: Students who do not have a documented disability but who think they may have one are encouraged to contact Disability Services.

University Writing Services

Students are encouraged to take advantage of University Writing Services in the Student Success Center; getting feedback benefits writers at all skill levels. Trained writing consultants can help with writing projects, multimedia projects, and oral presentations. University Writing Services offers one-on-one consultations that address everything from brainstorming and developing ideas to crafting strong sentences and documenting sources. For more information, visit <https://www.slu.edu/life-at-slu/student-success-center/> or call the Student Success Center at 314-977-3484.

Basic Needs Security

Students in personal or academic distress and/or who may be specifically experiencing challenges such as securing food or difficulty navigating campus resources, and who believe this may affect their performance in the course, are encouraged to contact the Dean of Students Office (deanofstudents@slu.edu or 314-977-9378) for support. Furthermore, please notify the instructor if you are comfortable in doing so, as this will enable them to assist you with finding the resources you may need.

Throughout the COVID-19 pandemic, key safeguards like face masks have allowed SLU to safely maintain in-person learning. If public health conditions and local, state, and federal restrictions demand it, the University may require that all members of our campus community wear face masks indoors.

Therefore, any time a University-level face mask requirement is in effect, face masks will be required in this class. This expectation will apply to all students and instructors, unless a medical condition warrants an exemption from the face mask requirement (see below).

When a University-wide face mask requirement is in effect, the following will apply:

- Students who attempt to enter a classroom without wearing masks will be asked by the instructor to put on their masks prior to entry. Students who remove their masks during a class session will be asked by the instructor to resume wearing their masks.
- Students and instructors may remove their masks briefly to take a sip of water but should replace masks immediately. The consumption of food will not be permitted.

- Students who do not comply with the expectation that they wear a mask in accordance with the University-wide face mask requirement may be subject to disciplinary actions per the rules, regulations, and policies of Saint Louis University, including but not limited to those outlined in the Student Handbook. Non-compliance with this policy may result in disciplinary action, up to and including any of the following:
 - o dismissal from the course(s)
 - o removal from campus housing (if applicable)
 - o dismissal from the University
- To immediately protect the health and well-being of all students, instructors, and staff, instructors reserve the right to cancel or terminate any class session at which any student fails to comply with a University-wide face mask requirement.

When a University-wide face mask requirement is not in effect, students and instructors may choose to wear a face mask or not, as they prefer for their own individual comfort level.

ADA Accommodations for Face Mask Requirements

Saint Louis University is committed to maintaining an inclusive and accessible environment. Individuals who are unable to wear a face mask due to medical reasons should contact the Office of Disability Services (students) or Human Resources (instructors) to initiate the accommodation process identified in the University's ADA Policy. Inquiries or concerns may also be directed to the Office of Institutional Equity and Diversity. Notification to instructors of SLU-approved ADA accommodations should be made in writing prior to the first class session in any term (or as soon thereafter as possible).

The health and well-being of SLU's students, staff, and faculty are critical concerns, as is the quality of our learning environments. Accordingly, the following University policy statements on in-person class attendance are designed to preserve and advance the collective health and well-being of our institutional constituencies and to create the conditions in which all students have the opportunity to learn and successfully complete their courses.

1. Students who exhibit any potential COVID-19 symptoms (those that cannot be attributed to some other medical condition the students are known to have, such as allergies, asthma, etc.) shall absent themselves from any in-person class attendance or in-person participation in any class-related activity until they have been evaluated by a qualified medical official. Students should contact the University Student Health Center for immediate assistance.
2. Students (whether exhibiting any of potential COVID-19 symptoms or not, and regardless of how they feel) who are under either an isolation or quarantine directive issued by a qualified health official must absent themselves from all in-person course activities per the stipulations of the isolation or quarantine directive.
3. Students are responsible for notifying their instructor of an absence as far in advance as possible; when advance notification is not possible, students are responsible for notifying each instructor as soon after the absence as possible. Consistent with the University Attendance Policy, students also are responsible for all material covered in class and must work with the instructor to complete any required work. In situations where students must be absent for an extended period of time due to COVID-19 isolation or quarantine, they also must work with the instructor to determine the best way to maintain progress in the course as they are able based on their health situation.

4. Consistent with the University Attendance Policy, students may be asked to provide medical documentation when a medical condition impacts a student's ability to attend and/or participate in class for an extended period of time.

5. As a temporary amendment to the current University Attendance Policy, all absences due to illness or an isolation/quarantine directive issued by a qualified health official, or due to an adverse reaction to a COVID-19 vaccine, shall be considered "Authorized" absences
