SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY

OFFICE OF MISSION AND IDENTITY

A Jesuit education aims to form the whole person. As a Jesuit, Catholic university, Saint Louis University offers students a distinctive educational experience. Built on a spiritual, intellectual and social tradition more than five centuries old, SLU provides opportunities and an environment that encourages the full flourishing of our students in every aspect of their humanity.

BECAUSE MISSION
MATTERS.

WHAT IS IT...? THE CURRICULUM

ICP@SLU is a mission formation program for the faculty, staff, and leaders of Saint Louis University that seeks to:

- deepen our collective commitment to the Catholic Jesuit mission of SLU
- intensify our understanding of SLU's Ignatian heritage
- strengthen the SLU community across disciplines and departments
- provide ongoing opportunities for growth and development in SLU's mission and identity
- reinforce the values and principles of the Society of Jesus in our mission at SLU
- support the efforts of the SLU community to engage the Universal Apostolic Preferences

...AND WHY?

Over the course of two academic years, cohorts will pursue an in-depth and hands-on exploration of the intellectual, spiritual, and service-oriented aspects of Ignatian thought and praxis. At the conclusion of the program, each participant will have presented a capstone project demonstrating integration of their learning into their role at SLU.
